PROGRAM GUIDELINES: JOHN R. JUSTICE (JRJ) GRANT PROGRAM

CFDA #16.816

INTRODUCTION

The John R. Justice (JRJ) Program is administered by the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), and the Nebraska Commission for Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice (Nebraska Crime Commission) is the elected State Administering Agency (SAA) of these grant funds. BJA has awarded funds to each of the 50 states and the District of Columbia to serve eligible recipients working within the state's or District's jurisdictions.

The JRJ Program was codified at 42 U.S.C. 3797cc-21, and named for the late John Reid Justice of South Carolina, to encourage qualified attorneys to choose careers as prosecutors and public defenders and to continue in that service. The criminal justice system faces a challenge of retaining qualified prosecutors and public defenders who serve everyday to ensure that our communities are protected, the rule of law is upheld, and the rights of citizenry are safeguarded. Student loan debt is consistently cited as the overwhelming reason why attorneys decline or leave positions as prosecutors and public defenders. The vast majority of law students borrow to finance their legal education, but public defender and prosecutor salaries have failed to keep pace with the escalating cost of education.

The JRJ Program provides loan repayment assistance for local, state, and federal public defenders and local and state prosecutors who commit to continued employment as public defenders and prosecutors for at least three (3) years. An attorney must not be in default on repayment of any federal student loans.

STATE FUNDING ALLOCATION

The Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS) has calculated a minimum base allocation for each state and the District of Columbia in the amount of $100,000. This minimum base allocation is then enhanced by an amount proportional to each state's share of the national population.

Nebraska's FY2010 funding has been calculated as $85,000.00.

State agencies administering the JRJ Program must ensure that funding for local repayment is allocated equally between prosecutors and public defenders. Therefore, the Nebraska Crime Commission must demonstrate that the total amount of loan repayment funding awarded to eligible prosecutors is equal to the total amount awarded to eligible public defenders. This equal allocation requirement applies only to the total amounts repaid. States are not required to make an equal number of awards to eligible beneficiaries of each category.

ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS

JRJ contracts administered by the Nebraska Crime Commission are intended to encourage qualified individuals to enter and continue employment as prosecutors and public defenders. Consistent with BJA guidance, the following persons shall be considered eligible:

- Prosecutor 42 U.S.C. 3797cc-21(b)(1) – a full-time employee of a state or unit of local government who is continually licensed to practice law and prosecutes criminal or juvenile delinquency cases at the state or unit of local government level (including supervision, education, or training of other persons prosecuting such cases). Prosecutors who are employees of the federal government are not eligible.
- Public Defender (42 U.S.C. 3797cc-21(b)(2)) – an attorney who is
 1. continually licensed to practice law and is a full-time employee of a state or unit of local government who provides legal representation to indigent persons in criminal or juvenile delinquency cases including supervision, education, or training of other persons providing representation;
 2. a full-time employee of a nonprofit organization operating under a contract with a state or unit of local government who devotes substantially all of the employee’s full-time employment to providing legal representation to indigent persons in criminal or juvenile delinquency cases including supervision, education, or training of other persons providing such representation; or
 3. employed as a full-time federal defender attorney in a defender organization pursuant to Subsection (g) of section 3006A of Title 18, U.S.C., that provides legal representation to indigent persons in criminal or juvenile delinquency cases.

NOTE: Attorneys who are in private practice and not a full-time employee of a non-profit organization, even if individually or part of a firm that is under contract with a state or court-appointed to provide public defense services, do not qualify as “public defenders” and therefore are not considered to be eligible as beneficiaries under this solicitation.

Full-time employment is considered “not less than 75 percent of a 40 hour work week” for the purpose of this solicitation.

In addition to the above definitions and requirements, eligible recipients must:

- be a U.S. citizen or an eligible non-citizen
- have an outstanding balance due on an eligible educational loan
- be continually licensed to practice law
- not be in default on a federally guaranteed education loan

LOAN ELIGIBILITY

Loans eligible for repayment are defined as, and limited to the following:

Student Loan:

- 1) A loan made, insured, or guaranteed under part B of subchapter IV of chapter 28 of Title 20 (Federal Family Education Loan Program);
- 2) A loan made under part C or D of subchapter IV of chapter 28 of Title 20 (William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan and Federal Perkins Loans);
- 3) A loan made under section 1078-3 or 1087e(g) of Title 20 (Federal consolidation loans and Federal Direct Consolidation loans, respectively).

INELIGIBLE LOANS

The term student loan does not include any of the following loans:

- 1) A loan made to a person of a dependent student under section 428B of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1078-2).
- 2) A Federal Direct PLUS Loan made to the parents of a dependent student.
- 3) A loan made under section 428C or 455 (g) of a higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1078-3 (Federal consolidation loans) and 1087e(g) (Federal Direct Consolidation loans) to the extent that such loan was used to repay a loan described in clause (1) or (2).

SERVICE AGREEMENT

As a condition precedent to the repayment of any loan obligation under this program, all eligible recipients must sign an agreement (APPENDIX A) to remain employed as a prosecutor or public defender for a period of service of not less than three years (36 months) unless involuntarily separated from my employment. The period of service begins with the effective award date.

For purposes of this program, involuntary separation could result from layoff, loss of election, or similar nature. Termination as a result of misconduct or unacceptable performance would not qualify as involuntary separation.

A recipient of funds may change employers within the designated three years but must remain employed as a qualifying prosecutor or public defender to continue receiving benefits and to satisfy their service agreement. The recipient will be allowed a reasonable break in service when changing employers, not to exceed 30 days. A break in service exceeding 30 days will be subject to review by the Nebraska Crime Commission and may result in the termination of contract. Periods of leave without pay, or other periods in which the recipient is not in pay status, do not count toward the completion of the required service period upon re-employment. The service completion date must be extended by the total time spent in non-pay status.

Absence because of uniformed service in a recognized branch of the United States military, authorized maternity/paternity, FMLA, or due to compensable injury is considered creditable (pending approval of the Director of BJA obtained by the Nebraska Crime Commission) toward the required service period upon re-employment.

In the event a recipient voluntarily leaves a position as an eligible beneficiary, or in the event of involuntary separation for misconduct or unacceptable performance before completing the agreed upon period of service, the recipient will be indebted to the Federal government and must reimburse the Federal government or Nebraska Crime Commission for the full amount of any student loan repayments made under this solicitation. The return of funds will not be determined on a pro-rata calculation.

CONTRACT PERIOD

The 2010 JRJ contract period for approved beneficiaries is October 1st, 2010 through September 30, 2011.

Once approved for loan repayment, there is a rebuttable presumption that a beneficiary will be given priority consideration to receive funding during the second and third years of the three-year service agreement, depending on the availability of funds. Renewal is not automatic and nothing shall obligate Nebraska Crime Commission to renew a benefit or to renew such benefit in the same (or greater) amount previously received by a beneficiary.

Funding for subsequent contract periods will be subject to availability of funds and federal re-appropriation of such monies under the JRJ Program.

PAYMENT INFORMATION

In accordance with 42 U.S.C. 3797cc-21(c), funds can only be paid to the institution holding the qualifying loan and may not be paid directly to the beneficiary. The recipient may hold more than one qualifying student loan, but funds will only be issued to one institution, as identified by the applicant in the application form.

Funds awarded under this program are a supplement to, not a substitute for, personal student loan obligations. Recipients remain responsible for making regular student loan payments and must continue to make personal payments toward their qualifying loan to remain eligible for the JRJ Program in the future.

Nebraska Crime Commission will disperse funds to the lending institution for the duration of the contract period in one installment of the award total, unless notified otherwise. Payments will be made via Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) if the lending institution is capable of such transaction. A one time payment, for the total awarded amount, will be made at the end of the grant period to applicants who have met the employment eligibility requirement by the end of the grant period and who have submitted all necessary quarterly reports and documents to the Nebraska Crime Commission.

Payments made on behalf of approved recipients cannot exceed the total qualifying loan balance. The beneficiary remains responsible for any remaining payments or balances. Neither the Department of Justice nor the Nebraska Crime Commission will be held responsible for any late fees assessed by the lending institution. Therefore, the recipient will be responsible to ensure their monthly payment is paid in full and in a timely manner, especially if the payment is due on or before Nebraska Crime Commission issues the payment.

Note: Commonly, a lending institution will reduce or advance the debtor's payments if a loan repayment is made under a program like JRJ. It will be the responsibility of the recipient to discuss this issue with their lending institution.

The amount paid by Nebraska Crime Commission shall not exceed $6,000.00 for any individual in any 12-month contract period or an aggregate total of $60,000 in the case of any individual.

REPORTING REQUIREMENT

Recipients of JRJ funds will be required to submit the following documentation by the 15th of the month following the end of each quarter during the specific period in order to initiate assisted payments on their student loan and verify continued qualifying employment in order to satisfy Year 1 of the service agreement:

- Proof of Employment Form (Appendix B)

- Monthly Statement Due (either a copy of the statement mailed each month from the lending institution or a screen printout of an account that may have been set-up online). The Statement Due should show the name of the lending institution, name of beneficiary, balance of loan, payment due, payment due date, and remittance address, at a minimum.

Regardless of the start date, the above documentation is due for normal quarters as listed below.

Jan-March
April-June

July-Sept
Oct- Dec

Failure to submit proper documentation by instructed due dates may result in termination of service agreement and future funding.

PERFORMANCE METRICS

The Nebraska Crime Commission will be required to complete quarterly performance metric reports as a means to evaluate this program. This data will be collected during the application and award process and therefore should be readily available.

In addition, however, the Nebraska Crime Commission will be required to annually evaluate the overall program and award of funds based on feedback from each recipient. It is anticipated that such feedback will be collected through means of a survey, but further information will be provided once it becomes available.

It is understood and agreed upon that, in the event funds from federal sources are not appropriated and continued at an aggregate level sufficient to cover the contract costs, or in the event of a change in federal or state laws relevant to these costs, the obligations of each party hereunder shall thereupon be terminated immediately upon receipt of written notice. 2. I understand that JRJSLRP funds are a supplement to, not a substitute for, my personal student loan obligations. I understand that amounts to be paid on my behalf are subject to the availability of funds and my continued eligibility. I understand that if I do not remain eligible, then further loan repayment benefits may be denied although the service obligation will remain in force. I understand that the award of JRJSLRP in any fiscal year does not guarantee benefits in future fiscal years, and that awards are subject to the availability of appropriations. I understand that any loan repayments made on my behalf may be taxable and subject to withholding.
3. I authorize the Department of Justice and/or the designated JRJSLRP State administrative agency, to verify the status, payment history, and outstanding balance of each qualifying loan, and to discuss the terms with the lender or note holder, or predecessors or successors in interest.

The term “qualifying loan” is understood to have the same meaning as “student loan” in 42 U.S.C. §3797cc-21(b)(3):

- (1) A loan made, insured, or guaranteed under part B of subchapter IV of chapter 28 of Title 20;
- (2) A loan made under part C or D of subchapter IV of chapter 28 of Title 20; and
- (3) A loan made under section 1078-3 or 1087e(g) of Title 20.

Further, the term “qualifying loan” is expressly understood not to include any of the following loans:

- (1) A loan made to the parents of a dependent student under section 1078-2 of Title 20.
 - (2) A Federal Direct PLUS Loan made to the parents of a dependent student.
 - (3) A loan made under section 1078-3 or 1087e(g) of Title 20 to the extent that such loan was used to repay a loan described in sub. (1) or (2) above.
4. I will notify the designated JRJSLRP State administrative agency, without delay, in writing, of any transfer to a new position or employing agency, identifying myself as a JRJSLRP beneficiary.
 5. I will notify the designated JRJSLRP State administrative agency, without delay, in writing, of my intention to voluntarily separate, resign, or retire from my position as an eligible beneficiary before completing my service obligation under paragraph 1 above.
 6. I will notify the designated JRJSLRP State administrative agency, without delay, in writing, of my status in default of any loan obligation with respect to a qualifying “student loan,” as defined in 42 U.S.C. §3797cc-21(b)(3)(A).
 7. In the event I voluntarily leave my position as an eligible beneficiary, or in the event I am involuntarily separated for misconduct or unacceptable performance before completing the agreed upon period of service, I will be indebted to the Federal government and must reimburse the Department of Justice for the full amount of any student loan repayments made on my behalf under this service agreement. I further acknowledge that a sum equal to the amount that I am required to repay shall be recoverable by the Federal government from me (or my estate, if applicable) by such methods as are provided by law for the recovery of amounts owed to the Federal government.
 8. I understand and affirm that I remain responsible for making regular student loan payments, that such responsibility is not abated by selection for participation in the JRJSLRP, and that I am required to continue to make personal payments toward my qualifying loans to remain eligible for the JRJSLRP in the future. I understand that JRJSLRP payments will be made directly to the holder of my qualifying loan(s) and that I will not be the direct recipient of any such funds.
 9. Loan repayments made on my behalf pursuant to this agreement do not exempt me from responsibility and/or liability for the full amount of any loan in which I am the debtor.
 10. I am responsible for any income tax obligation resulting from the student loan repayments made on my behalf.
 11. I understand that, by law, repayment benefits made on my behalf cannot exceed $10,000 in any calendar year or an aggregate total of $60,000. This limitation should not, under any circumstances, be construed as an obligation of said benefits. This agreement may be modified by the parties, subject to the limitations of 42 U.S.C. §§ 3797cc-21(d) and (e), to provide additional student loan repayment benefits without the need for an entirely new agreement. Such modifications include, but are not limited to, the possibility of payment increases, or the extension of benefits beyond the initial three-year service obligation, in consideration for additional service commitment by the beneficiary, based upon terms to be determined by the parties.

12. Periods of leave without pay, or other periods during which I am not in a pay status do not count toward the completion of the required service period upon reemployment. The service completion date must be extended by the total time spent in non-pay status. However, absence because of uniformed service in a recognized branch of the United States military, authorized maternity/paternity, FMLA, or due to compensable injury is considered creditable (within the sole discretion of the Director of BJA) toward the required service period upon reemployment.
13. This agreement is null and void if I am not selected for JRJSLRP in the year I sign and date this agreement.
